A pillar of Canada's economic strength, the mineral exploration and mining sector supports employment, innovation, and global competitiveness. This special feature, created in collaboration with the Prospectors & Developers Association of Canada (PDAC) and strategically timed for the PDAC Convention (March 1-4) will highlight the future of mining and exploration — from major projects and emerging markets to the technologies and partnerships reshaping the industry. Insights from industry leaders will illustrate how companies are navigating risk, embracing innovation, and driving long-term value across the sector.

Proposed topic highlights:

Leadership: The expertise and vision driving the next wave of mining investment.

Technology: Innovations in exploration, extraction, and environmental management.

Sustainability: ESG commitments and clean technology adoption in mining operations.

Indigenous Partnerships: Building inclusive growth through respectful collaboration and shared value.

Critical Minerals: Canada's strategic role in the global transition to a low-carbon economy.

Financing and Markets: Trends influencing capital flow, mergers, and acquisitions in the sector.
