Strengthening Canada through family enterprise

Family-owned and multigenerational businesses are a cornerstone of Canada's economy — creating jobs, fostering entrepreneurship, and anchoring communities in every region of the country. As these enterprises navigate generational transitions, evolving market conditions, and technological change, their ability to adapt while preserving long-term values plays a critical role in Canada's economic strength. This special feature will explore how Canadian family enterprises are planning for continuity, investing for growth, and positioning themselves to remain competitive and impactful for generations to come.

Proposed topic highlights

Succession & Continuity in Canadian Family Businesses

How Canadian owners are preparing the next generation for leadership through governance structures, education, and long-term succession planning.

Tax, Estate, and Intergenerational Wealth Strategy

Examining Canada-specific tax, estate, and trust strategies that support capital preservation, business continuity, and responsible wealth transfer.

Modernizing Canadian Family Enterprises

How family-owned businesses across Canada are adopting digital tools and new technologies to improve productivity, resilience, and long-term competitiveness.

Values-Based Leadership and Community Impact

The role of purpose-driven leadership, culture, and stewardship in shaping sustainable Canadian businesses rooted in community and long-term thinking.

Partnerships Powering Growth

Showcasing how strategic partnerships — across industries, regions, and generations — are helping Canadian family enterprises scale, innovate, and remain globally competitive.
